

Globe & Mail Publishes Quotes About Prenups and Marriage Agreements by Naoshad Pochkhanawala

Description

"...While there's no evidence that having a prenup increases the chances of divorce, Mr. Pochkhanawala has heard some wry lawyers comment that it may, however, decrease the chances of a wedding..."

"Whether they're supporting a significant other, do any sort of co-parenting, plan on purchasing a property together, or are expecting a significant inheritance, clients don't have to be getting married to enter into a 'marriage contract'."
